

Krishidhan Seeds Europe B.V. and Axia Vegetable Seeds B.V. announce that they have started an strategic alliance together!

The field of cooperation are: Breeding, Seed technologies and Sales.

We are very proud and pleased that we achieved this strategic alliance together, said Jan Tamboer CEO of Krishidhan Seeds Europe. The cooperation between Krishidhan and Axia will lead to a higher level of flexibility and speed to market. With Axia (a new venture of Sandor van Vliet), we will access to the top European vegetable seed industry as well as large growers of produce.

Sandor van Vliet is excited with this agreement after such short time after the start of his company, and having access to the technologies of Krishidhan with such high level experience and knowledge.

“We are positively surprised of the high level Bio technology within Krishidhan, this will be of great value for the future of our company. On sales level in Europe and the Middle East the cooperation between Krishidhan and Axia starts in the very near future. We are convinced this alliance will give a positive contribution to the revenues of both companies!”

India is one of the emerging markets in the world, Krishidhan (India) is the first company who has achieved the level of quality which can complete in these markets, Sandor said.

Axia Vegetable Seeds is located in the Westland of the Netherlands and Krishidhan Seeds Europe in Enkhuizen Netherlands.

Kind Regards,
Jan Tamboer
